Personal Goals:

- What are your academic goals for this semester/year?

My academic goal for this year is to work hard and improve my knowledge so that I can become a good teacher in the future. I want to focus on my studies, build strong communication skills, and learn how to explain topics clearly. I will also try to participate in class activities and help others, just like a teacher does.

Current Challenges:

- What challenges are you currently facing in your academic or personal life?

One challenge I am currently facing is low confidence, especially when I have to speak in front of others. I feel nervous and sometimes forget what I want to say. But I am trying to improve by practicing more and participating in class activities. I believe that with time and effort, I will become more confident in public speaking.
